

CHRISTMAS 2024

IT'S THAT TIME OF YEAR WHEN ACTIVITIES AND EVENTS ROLL AT A RATE YOU CAN BARELY KEEP UP WITH. TO MAKE IT EASIER, HERE'S WHAT'S HAPPENING OVER THE REMAINING WEEKS IN THE RUN-UP TO CHRISTMAS.

UNTIL 6TH
DEC

Up until 6th December, we are collecting any old children's Christmas jumpers that have been outgrown. Please drop donations into the school office. they will be available to buy, alongside pre-loved school uniform, at the Bazaar.

22ND
NOV

On 22nd November we'll be sending home empty mystery bags. We'd like children to decorate and fill with bits & bobs (no nuts), returning them to school during the week commencing 2nd December. The bags will then be available for children to purchase at the Christmas Bazaar, this year as a 'lucky dip' style stall.

29TH
NOV

Wake & Shake event! Children will take part in a whole school Wake & Shake activity in return for a chocolate tombola donation. Please drop your donations into the PTFA donation bins at drop off. Any size chocolate item is appreciated but no nuts please.

29TH
NOV

For those children who designed Christmas cards, you will soon receive an order form with instructions allowing you to order online. The deadline for all orders to be placed is 29th November. Finished products will be delivered to school and sent home by 13th December.

WEEK OF
2ND
DEC

Please return completed mystery bags into the collection bins in the playground during this week. We'd also love it if you could help with any donations of mince pies for the bazaar itself.

6TH
DEC

It's the Christmas Bazaar! Get into the festive spirit with carols, crafts, refreshments, games, Christmas Raffle and more. Full details to follow. Raffle tickets available here.

WEEK OF
16TH
DEC

It's Secret Santa week, where the children get to choose and wrap a present for someone special. The PTFA cover one gift for every child but you can purchase additional gifts if you like. Find out more and purchase your extra Secret Santa gifts here.